A look back at the Samoa 2023 IVF Va'a Long Distance World Championship Results

6th August 2025 Uncategorized

As the 2025 IVF World Distance Championships edition in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil draws near, this is the perfect moment to look back at the Samoa 2023 IVF World Distance Championships which delivered five unforgettable days of racing, with elite and masters crews pushing themselves through challenging Pacific swells. We would also like to remind fans to watch the upcoming livestream presented by TotalPaddler founder Mathieu Astier from August 16 to August 21.

Looking specifically at the Open categories, New Zealand's Manutea Million's took gold in V1 Open Men ahead of New Caledonia's Titouan Puyo and Brazil's Robert Almeida Gonçalves, the only podium maker from 2023 to return to the Worlds this year. In the women's equivalent, France's Iloha Eychenne stormed to gold in V1 Open Women – and will be defending her long distance world title in Rio – chased by New Zealand's Marianna Hodges and Elenoa Vateitei, who will be representing Fiji again this year.

The USA won gold in V6 Open Women, edging New Zealand and Hawai'i, while in the V6 Open Men's showdown, Hawai'i's crew powered to gold, holding off Tahiti and New Zealand in a tactical race decided by under 90 seconds. These open-class results underscored the depth of Pacific paddling powerhouses—Hawai'i, Tahiti, and New Zealand—while also highlighting emerging threats from Brazil and France in V1.

From explosive V1 sprints to grueling V6 battles, Samoa 2023 was a showcase of endurance, strategy, and cultural pride. With Va'a Rio 2025 on the horizon, the lessons learned and rivalries formed in Samoa will set the tone for another dramatic chapter in outrigger history, this time in Brazil!
